CORPORATE NAME CHANGE TO

ORANGE COUNTY AFRICAN AMERICAN COMMUNITY CENTER, INC.

Placentia, California, September 14, 2019 (Prime Newswire) – Spiritual Truth Foundation, Inc., a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization dedicated to helping economically-challenged students in pursuing their educational goals announced it has legally changed its corporate name to “ORANGE COUNTY AFRICAN AMERICAN COMMUNITY CENTER, INC.”(OCAACCI) effective immediately. (Date)?

“The name change reflects the organization’s broader commitment of awarding scholarships as well as the vision of establishing a Learning Center, which will provide opportunities to enhance students with their academic performances, while exposing them to social justice experiences that will overall expand their connections in the world,” said James Johnson, CEO of Orange County African American Community Center, Inc.

Our mission will continue to award scholarships to students who actively support their religious convictions, are passionate about their education, and plan carefully for their future.

As part of the name change, OCAACCI has released a new company logo and launched a new company website at www.oacaacci.org.
