

ORANGE COUNTY AFRICAN AMERICAN COMMUNITY CENTER, INC.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Placentia, California, August 24, 2020 – Orange County African American Community Center, Inc. (OCAACCI), a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization dedicated to helping economically-challenged students in pursuing their educational goals announced its Voter Outreach Drive, ‘BALLOTS TO BOX’ to launch October 1, 2020.

Voting is one of the most important responsibilities we have as U.S. citizens. It’s our opportunity to select leaders who understand the issues we face and whose rhetoric will match our votes throughout the nation. Together, we can give our democracy new meaning and take it to a better place. We are the missing ingredient – the ones who will decide whether or not America becomes the country that fully lives up to its creed.

The upcoming Presidential election is Tuesday, November 3, 2020, and it is more important than ever to go to the polls and cast your vote. However, we know that these are perilous times, and it may be difficult for some of us to cast our votes at the polls successfully. In addition, and due to COVID-19, many voters must now rely on our United States Postal Service, which may be unable to meet such a great task nationwide.

Therefore, as a thank you to all of our dedicated donors, supporters, their family and friends over the past years, OCAACCI will offer BALLOTS TO BOX, a FREE service offering home/office ballot pickup and delivery directly to your respective registrar’s office for the following counties:

County	Contact Person	Phone
Los Angeles	Peggy Sturdivant-McNeil	(310) 345-9372
Orange	James Johnson/ John Woodruff	(714) 350-2725 (714) 299-5327
Riverside	Annie Allen	(951) 315-1960
San Bernardino	Andrea Smith/ Belinda Harris	(949) 278-3534 (909) 717-9238

And finally, in the words of our 44th President, Barack Obama, let’s be mindful that, “What we do now will echo throughout generations.”

We look forward to serving your needs. More updates to follow...
